News from the Auburn Town Hall

With Auburn's fifth SB2 Deliberative Town Meeting and annual Town elections now behind us, we want to thank all of the individuals who ran for office for your willingness to step forward and serve our community. While we may not always agree with each other on every issue, at the end of the day it is clear that we all believe Auburn is a special place that we like to call home.

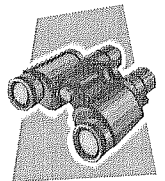

Board of Selectmen

The Board of Selectmen held its organizational meeting of the year on March 17th. Russell Sullivan has been re-elected to serve as Selectmen Chairman for the coming year, while James Headd will serve as Vice Chairman.

In addition to their service as Selectmen, each Board member serves as an ex-officio member of one or more town boards. Russ Sullivan will continue to serve on the Planning Board, while Jim Headd will serve on the Budget Committee and the Parks & Recreation Commission. Rick Eaton will serve on the Conservation Commission and the Highway Safety Committee.

Internal Investigation Results

Following nearly a year of public accusations, the Board of Selectmen in November decided it was necessary to retain a neutral third-party to conduct an internal investigation to try and determine whether any Town official or employee had been responsible for the burying of solid waste at the former landfill property on Chester Turnpike.

In late November 2013, the Board of Selectmen unanimously agreed to retain Attorney Craig L. Staples of Concord to undertake this effort. As has been publicized, Attorney Staples conducted a thorough investigation that included interviewing 19 individuals and reviewing hundreds of pages of documents. On February 17th, Attorney Staples delivered the results of his efforts to the Town, which the Board of Selectmen released to the public on February 24th.

The detailed report is posted at the Town Hall and is available to individuals on the Town's web site. The conclusions reached in this report are:

1. More probably than not, the Road Agent was not involved in, did not authorize and did not have contemporaneous knowledge of the burial of the solid waste at the landfill.
2. More probably than not, Darren Wetherbee was involved in and had contemporaneous knowledge of the burial of the solid waste at the landfill sometime between 2009-2011.

More probably than not, no other official, employee or agent of the town was involved in, authorized or had contemporaneous knowledge of the burial of the solid waste at the landfill.

With the results of the internal investigation in hand, the Board of Selectmen has referred the report to both the Auburn Police Department and to the Rockingham County Attorney's Office for any action they determine is appropriate. At the same time, the Selectmen have directed Town Counsel to determine whether any civil action for recovery of remediation costs is warranted. As of this writing, the Selectmen are awaiting reports from these three entities.

Town Report Artwork

Hopefully folks have notice the artwork that appeared on the cover and within the 2013 Town of Auburn and Auburn School District Annual Report. The four featured drawings were done by students in the seventh grade at the Auburn Village School.

This was the second time the Town requested artwork from Auburn Village School students for this purpose. The idea to have the students participate in this fashion came from Police Chief Edward Picard during a monthly Town department head meeting last year.

T.J. Farrell drew the artwork of the Griffin Mill Bridge that appeared on the front cover of the report. Other artwork appearing inside the report included a view of a dock at Lake Massabesic by Taylor Dudek; the Auburn Town Pound drawn by Lauren Sylvain, while Maggie Vaillancourt drew the Auburn Town Hall.

Judges who determined the artwork to appear on the front cover were Town Clerk Joanne Linxweiler, Library Director Ricky Sirois and Chief Picard.

Griffin Free Public Library

by Ricky Sirois, Library Director

On behalf of the Board of Trustees and the staff of Griffin Free Public Library, I would like to extend an invitation to each and every person in Auburn to attend this year's Open House. This will be our 2nd year of what we hope will be a treasured and successful annual event. Last year we had over 100 people stop in to see our new computer system, speak with the director and trustees, and share some finger foods and good conversation with their friends, neighbors, and fellow library users.

This year's Open House will be held on Sunday, April 6th from 2-5 p.m. at the Library. We are working to make this year even more exciting than last year. Our children's room will be headquarters for any visiting youngsters. Miss Mary and her assistants will have games, puzzles, and activities to please children of all ages. For everyone else, we will have a roving magician who will be performing feats of wonder as he wanders the crowd.

We will also have an assortment of finger foods, snacks, and beverages, and you will have the opportunity to learn about the Library's strategic plan and the many exciting features that are either currently or soon to be implemented at the Library. We will also have door prizes, information on our existing children's and adult programs, and, weather permitting, the chance to enjoy our patio area.

Finally, we will remain open for business throughout the Open House. It will be a great opportunity to renew or get a new library card, explore our collection of DVDs, sign up to use one of our great museum passes, or just pick up that book you've been meaning to read.

I hope to see many of you at Griffin Free on Sunday, April 6th between 2-5, and talk with you about the library, books, and other great things happening in Auburn!

The Lions are coming into our summer schedule of events and as they are finalized you will find the information here.

We had a table at the town voting day on March 11 and thanks to many voters, we collected donations of our projects plus some paying for their name listings on the 2015 Community Calendar. Ideas were exchanged and many congratulated us on what we were doing--THANKS.

We still have handicap equipment for anyone who needs something and that is going quite well. Within the next few months we will be sending out renewal letters for the calendar and thanks to the advertisers, this has been a successful project. We are also still accepting eyeglasses, phones and hearing aids for recycling. You can call Dave Rogers at 627-1036 or send us an e-mail at

by Captain Gary F. Bartis

www.auburnpolice.org

I've been around law enforcement my entire life. For thirty-five years I've been a full time Police Officer in the State of New Hampshire. Since June, 1991 my career has been here in the Town of Auburn. The years have been pretty good to me while performing my duties in law enforcement. There have been many ups and downs, but mostly it's been great, and the appreciation that's been exhibited to me by many of the Town residents has been welcomed. The most memorable of those experiences was when I taught the D.A.R.E. program in the fifth grade at the Auburn Village School. It's during that time I learned a lot about the citizens of the Town, and the fabric of Auburn. In fact, there have been many occasions that some of those D.A.R.E. students have returned to the Police Department to say hi to me. Gratifying doesn't even come close to the how I feel about my service to the Town.

On a lesser note, the "yin and yang" of it, are the people that dislike me just because of the position I hold, and the uniform I wear. By the mere fact of diving into someone's life when they become a suspect of a crime, a law enforcement Officer becomes the enemy. I understand that frame of mind, and realize it's a fact of life. Because of it I have treated every person I've investigated fairly. I've never humiliated anyone, or dehumanized them for what they were accused of. That wasn't my job! I got the facts of the case, and if it led to an arrest, the person was charged and brought to court. At that point it was up to the Judge or Jury to decide if I did my job properly.

This love / hate scenario plays out every day within the world of law enforcement, and we're all capable of handling both sides of the coin. When we took the oath of Office to serve and protect the community we work in and the State of New Hampshire, we knew all the ramifications. It's real life.

I bring this up because there's a rift in Auburn that has created a "Us and Them" mentality. No one is right or wrong in the way the rift has developed, but there are a large number of people on both sides that are misinformed, and acting out blindly based on their friendships to the parties. I've heard accusations of corruption, and wrong doing on the part of the Auburn Police Department. Unless a person actually knows of specific incidents, nothing should be said. If someone has a specific knowledge of corruption, they have a moral duty to report it to the appropriate agency. I take great exception to someone using the terms "corruption", "Laurie List Candidates", and other negative comments. Right, wrong, or indifferent, the accusations paint every member of the Auburn Police Department with the same broad brush. That's unjust and narrow-minded. I personally have never lied, or acted inappropriately in any aspect of my law enforcement career. I take my oath seriously, and I know my fellow Officers in Auburn feel the same.

There is one way to remedy this immediately. The Auburn Police Department has a ride along policy for the citizens of Auburn. Anyone that wants to do a ride along with an Officer on a shift can do so. They must fill out a request, and sign a waiver form. I will schedule the date and time for the ride along once the request is received. During a ride along the resident can ask questions about the Department, the Officer, the job, and actually see what goes on during a shift. It's the best way to find out for yourself what life as an Auburn Police Officer is really like. I urge everyone to take advantage of this offer, it will open some eyes.

Auburn Fire Department Activates New "Code Red" Emergency Notification System.

The "Code Red" Emergency Notification System provides Auburn public safety officials with the ability to quickly deliver messages to targeted areas or the entire town. The CodeRed system will provide individuals and businesses the ability to add their own phone numbers and email address directly into the system's database. An electronic enrollment page maintained by safety officials will provide links for this purpose.

Once connected to the CodeRED system, citizens and business owners can choose how they want to be notified in the event of an emergency. Additional phone numbers can be entered into the database as well. Other methods of contact during an emergency include cell phone, e-mail, text, twitter and facebook. Those without internet access would be able to call Auburn public safety officials and ask that their contact information be entered into the CodeRED system.

Required information would include first and last name, street address (no P.O. Boxes), city, state, zip code, and primary phone number. All businesses and individuals would be asked to register, including those who have unlisted phone numbers, have changed their phone number or address within the past year, as well as those who use cellular phones or Voice Over Internet Protocol (VOIP) phones as their primary contact numbers.

CodeRED has a geographically based delivery, which means street addresses (rather than P.O. boxes) are required to ensure emergency notification calls are received by the proper individuals in a given situation. The system works for cell phones too, but the system requires the associated street address to provide relevant messages.

CodeRED can give those who choose to participate, an easy and secure method for inputting information. The data collected would only be used for emergency notification purposes.

We are busy finalizing the plans for the annual Memorial Day Bazaar. The event is scheduled for May 25th at Wayne Eddows Memorial Field from 3:00 PM to the end of the fireworks display generously donated by Hooksett Fireworks. This year there will be music and karaoke, face painters, bouncy houses, the petting zoo, reptile exhibit, food vendors, etc. If there are local dance groups, cheerleading squads, etc. that would be interested in providing demonstrations during the event, please contact Helen Hiltz at auburnnhrecdept@aol.com. We will also have novelty vendors for your shopping pleasure. If you are interested in renting a space at the event, please contact Lisa Canavan at auburn.moms@yahoo.com or 603-365-5904. Mark your calendars for a fun-filled afternoon and evening for the whole family.

The concert series is alive and well! Thank-you to all who enjoyed and supported this effort last year. The first two concerts are planned at the gazebo at the Circle of Fun Playground on the corner of Route 121 and Bunker Hill Road. The Longmeadow Congregational church has volunteered to provide free, piping hot popcorn to add to your listening experience. Thank-you!

We have added a third, indoor venue this year as well. This will be a "coffee house" type of venue and will be held at the Auburn Village School. We are looking for civic organizations who may be interested in providing desserts for the "coffee house" event. Please contact Helen Hiltz at auburnnhrecdept@aol.com if you are interested. Since the November 8th concert will be so close to the holidays, the Parks and Recreation Committee has decided that we will be collecting dry goods to be donated to the food bank. Please come out to enjoy the evening and support our local communities at the same time!

Thursday, June 19, 2014 - 6 p.m. - 8 p.m. Brickyard Blues- This band rocked the gazebo last summer in our first summer concert and we are happy to invite them back to kick off our second season.

Thursday, August 21, 2014 - 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. The Mirage Band - This exceptional group of multi-talented musicians has an impressive repertoire which includes all musical styles spanning several decades so...something for everyone! Concert will be held at the gazebo.

Saturday, November 8, 2014 - 6 p.m. - 8 p.m. Auburn Coffeehouse - A relaxed, indoor coffeehouse experience with Wild Card and various local musical guests, taking place at the Auburn Village School stage. Come have coffee and dessert while listening to some fun music!

All concerts are FREE of charge, and include a free raffle. Everyone attending receives a raffle ticket, even the kids!

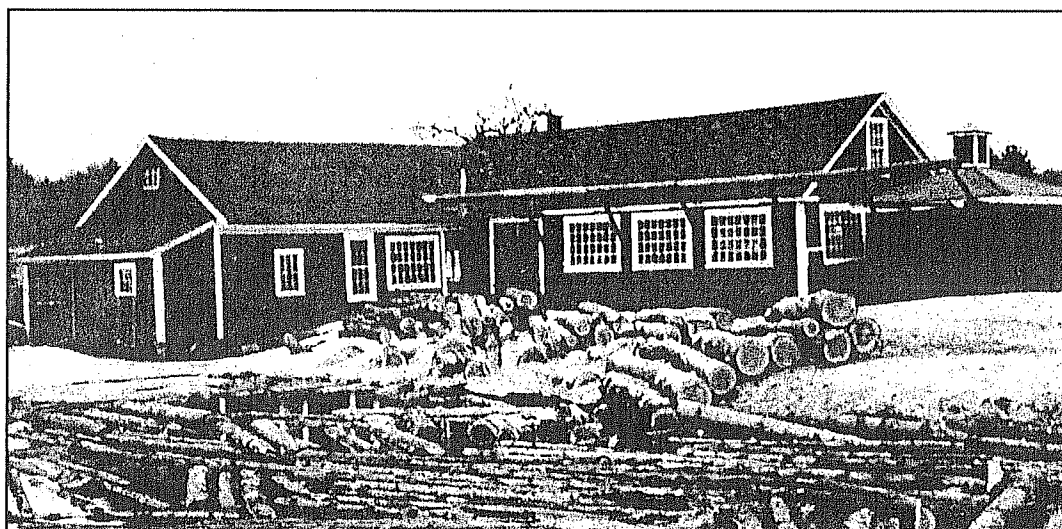

The Parks and Recreation department is pleased to announce that it has partnered with Dee Cleary to form a garden club! The mission of the club is "gardeners sharing gardens". The goals are to coordinate the sharing of Auburn resident's garden at the Massabesic Audubon, propagate plants for Auburn's town parks and buildings, provide education on the art and advancement of gardening, horticulture and conservation and to provide opportunities for leadership, mentoring and building community. If you are interested in joining your fellow gardeners, please contact Dee Cleary at dee.cleary@live.com or 483-2686.

Water-Powered Sawmills in Auburn

By Dan Carpenter

In 1860, on the eve of the Civil War, New Hampshire was the most industrialized state in the nation. Industry at that time meant water power. Most of Auburn is located in the Lake Massabesic watershed. The hills around Massabesic create a terrain ideal for water power. Dams were built to control water flow. Early spring meant melting snow and the sawmills would hum with activity. After a 60 day "season," the freshet would be gone and the brooks would again be left to frogs and kids.

Preston Brook, which flows between Spruce Swamp and Little Massabesic Pond had three mills; Dearborn, Pingree, and a fulling mill below Colman Road. Hook Brook, with its mill just east of the Chester Turnpike (near Ethan Howard's house) also flowed into Little Massabesic.

Up in Hooksett, Maple Falls Brook flows into Tower Hill Pond and then under Route 101 into Clark's Pond. This mill, owned by the Clark's, Griffin's, and finally the Manchester Water Works, was located on the Manchester-Portsmouth railroad line which meant that finished products had access to good transportation. (Today, the FOMBA bike trail begins here on Depot Road.)

This mill and the Griffin Mill at the dam in Auburn Village were the only mills with enough water to run most of the year. There are still many people in town who either worked at the MWW mill or their father or grandfather did.

John O'Neil of the Manchester Water Works and Dee Cleary are working on a presentation of Auburn's sawmills for the first of Auburn Historical Association's 2014 Program Series. If you have a mill story, Dee would like to talk with you.

The presentation is set for Wednesday, April 9 at 6:30 p.m. We will be showing a film of Al Sanborn and Eddie Locke's sawmill as well as a slide show of many of our former mill buildings and the people who ran them. Please join us for an evening full of stories. We hope you will bring a few stories of your own to share.

On Friday, April 11, our regular Auburn Historical Association meeting will start with a 6 p.m. potluck supper. The meeting at 7:00 p.m. will discuss this year's Duck Race. See you there.

Cub Scouts Pack 127

By Amy Binda

January 25th was a bittersweet day for den 1 and den 8 of Pack 127. Our annual Blue and Gold ceremony was held and 8 scouts from den 1 and 4 scouts from den 8 finished their journey as cub scouts and all 12 scouts earned the highest award as a Cub Scout, The Arrow of Light. Ian Algozzine, Kolbe Bartlett, Colby Bernier, Jeremy Binda, Andre' Comeau, Ryan Costello, Sheamus Finnegan, Brendan McCoy, Jeremy Gagnon, Luke Shepard, Carl Hadley, and Sam Rooney all received this honor.

Also at the ceremony 10 scouts bridged over into Boy Scouts. Andre' Comeau, Jeremy Gagnon, Luke Shepard, Carl Hadley and Sam Rooney joined Troop 127 and Ian Algozzine, Kolbe Bartlett, Colby Bernier, Jeremy Binda and Sheamus Finnegan joined Troop 135.

Girl Scouts

by Stacey Melendy

Did you know that Girl Scouting celebrated its 102nd birthday on March 12th? Scouts from Auburn and Candia started their week of celebration by being honored at the Longmeadow Congregational Church on March 9th. The Scouts greeted those attending service and led the congregation in The Pledge of Allegiance and The Girl Scout Promise. The girls also enjoyed sharing some cookie related snacks at coffee hour.

Cadette Troop 10020 went to the Microsoft Store in the Nashua Mall in February. The Troop earned their Digital Movie Maker Badge by taking a course in film making. They were able to use the innovative technology at the store to make their own movies with the skills they had just learned.

Junior Troop 10518 earned the Cooking Badge for Juniors called 'Simple Meals.' The girls reviewed tools in the kitchen, made breakfast omelet muffins, prepared a lasagna dinner and Thin Mint gooey cake bars for dessert, as well as, made their own quick meal idea with quesadillas. Lots of fun and mess was made that Monday. The Troop joined with other Derry Girl Scouts to serve dinner at the Nutfield Senior Center on March 6th. This dinner occurs on the first Thursday of each month with Girl Scouts helping. The Troop had a great time serving over 30 seniors the homemade lasagna, along with salad, bread and the Thin Mint desserts. Then they added to the week by braving the cold and early hours on Sunday March 9th with a cookie booth at Wal-Mart. The morning warmed up and the troop sold out while having fun in the cold together!

Brownie Troop 20001 is continuing to work on their service project. As part of their Journey the troop has chosen to help clean up the lake trails. They are also working with the Audubon on its 100th anniversary celebration. The troop is also proudly celebrating the record number of cookies they were able to sell this year.

Speaking of cookies, hope you are all stocked up for the year. We had a very successful cookie season that could not have happened without the tremendous amount of community support we received. Thank you to the local businesses and Longmeadow Church for hosting cookie booths and to all of you who purchased cookies from our scouts. Your support will help these scouts accomplish their goals.

Are You Looking for a Place to Worship?

Longmeadow Congregational Church, United Church of Christ at 4 Wilson's Crossing Road in Auburn invites you join us as together we worship in joyful expectation of the Resurrection!

We gather for Worship on Sunday mornings at 9:30 with Sunday School and child care available at the same time. In April we will celebrate the high point of the Christian year with Holy Week and Easter and we invite you to join us in this blessed season:

Sunday, April 13, 2014, 9:30 a.m. Palm Sunday and Holy Week Cantata

Each year we are blessed to have our Choir lead worship with a special Cantata of music telling the story of Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem and the events leading through the crucifixion.

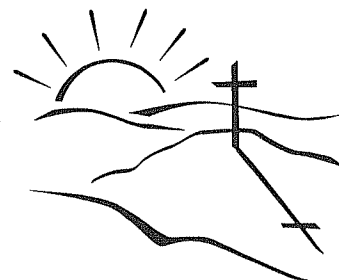

Thursday, April 17, 2014, 7:00 p.m. Maundy Thursday Worship

On this evening we gather to worship and remember Jesus gathering with his disciples to share a meal and prepare for his departure. It is our custom to follow Jesus' example of extravagant welcome in our celebration of the Sacrament of Holy Communion. All are welcome.

Sunday April 20, 2014 Easter Sunday!

6:00 a.m. Join us on the shore of Lake Massabesic (parking lot on the Londonderry Turnpike By-pass side of the Lake) as we joyfully welcome Christ's Resurrection with the rising of the sun.

9:30 a.m. We gather in joy to celebrate Christ's Resurrection together as a community and welcome you to worship with us.

Music is a very important ministry at Longmeadow and we are blessed to have our choir, under the faithful leadership of our Music Director, Mr. Herb Tardiff, as integral participants in worship each week. In addition, we have an active Handbell Choir and have recently formed a small orchestra of young people from our church which accompanies hymn singing and provides special music during worship about once each month. Our newest musical endeavor is the formation of an African Drum Group which we look forward to welcoming as a vibrant and lively addition to our worship.

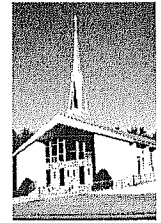

Rummage Sale, Saturday, April 12, 8-2pm

Are you looking to supplement your wardrobe after spring cleaning or replace the clothing your children have grown out of over the long winter? You'll find some great bargains in clothing and household linens at the Rummage Sale in our Fellowship Hall. See you there!

We of the Longmeadow Congregational Church, UCC wish to all our brothers and sisters in Auburn a very Blessed Easter. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here. If you have any questions, please contact our Pastor, Rev. Ruth Gallot at 483-2907.
